International Prize we are together.
More than 400 applications were received from 59 countries of the world in this competition

International Prize «We are together»

Dear Participant of the “We Are Together” International Prize,

The application for Prize was closed September 20, and now comes the most exciting stage – the evaluation of the applications by Regional Experts.

As for today, all the applications have been carefully studied by the Project Office of the Prize and checked for compliance with the formal requirements. Those applications, which comply with the formal requirements, will be sent to the Regional Experts for evaluation.

We will not torment you – we know how eager you are to find out the results. Your application has successfully passed the initial evaluation stage!

Very soon, we will find out which of the Nominees will receive an invitation to the largest volunteer event in the Russia – the International Forum of Civil Participation. Remember, you can be one of those lucky ones!
